Yunnan warns the hearts of stranded foreign friends

Israel: tourist will come back to China after the epidemic

An Israeli tourist stranded in Baisha Town sought help from the Foreign Affairs Office of Nanning (Nanjian FAO) in Dalie Prefecture on January 28. After reporting to the Foreign Affairs Team of NCP Prevention and Control Command of Dalie Prefecture, the officers of Nanjian FAO immediately visited Baisha Town for more details. It was found that the tourist arrived at Baisha Town on January 22, and had planned to visit Dalie, Lijiang, Shangri-La, and Tibet before returning to Israel. But he had to stop traveling due to the epidemic and had stayed in his friend’s home. He intended to leave for Guiyang the next day, but didn’t know how to get to the airport because of language barriers. The officers of Nanjian FAO helped him book a train ticket back to Kunming and an airline ticket to Thailand. They arranged for a vehicle which picked him up to Xianguang Train Station on February 2, and helped him to leave Yunnan as planned. The tourist arrived in Xiangkhouang, Laos and said that he would come back to Yunnan. Tourist services of Nanjian FAO were received well.

Italian tourist: Hope China defeats the epidemic soon

On January 31, the Foreign Affairs Team of NCP Prevention and Control Command of Honghe Prefecture received a call from the Consulate of the United States in Shanghai. An Italian tourist, with no symptoms of the novel coronavirus, is due to leave Kunming for China for a holiday January 28. The consular officer wanted to know if the tourist could fly directly to Rome. The tourist arrived in Kunming on January 28, and was staying in a villa’s home in Aitake Town for the Spring Festival. He couldn’t go back to Hong Kong as scheduled due to the epidemic, outbreak and sought help from the Embassy of Italy in China. The Foreign Affairs Team re-processed quickly and asked officers of Nanjian FAO to contact the tourists. The officials first explained to the tourist related policies and preventive measures, and then prepared for a private taxi and a bullet train back to Kunming on February 2. “I didn’t expect to receive such thoughtful help. Thank you very much. Hope China defeats the epidemic soon.” The Italian tourist said with excitement.
